Farewell Party For Pioneer Residents

HYLO — A farewell party was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kaduik at their home on Wed., November 9. Mr. and Mrs. Kaduik came to this district from Bellis in the "hungry thirties" and settled on a homestead south of Hylo.

Well they remember the trek through heavy timber, around the windfalls and over the hills breaking the trails with a team of horses, their worldly possessions loaded on the sleigh and followed by the herd of sheep. The young boys were the sheepherders, and at times it was almost impossible to make the tired sheep move through the snow trail. A reminiscing of other old time incidents proved very interesting and showed the many hardships that had to be overcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Kaduik have six sons, one of whom is farming in the Noral district. They have two daughters, both living in Edmonton. Mr. and Mrs. Kaduik also plan to live in the city where they own a house.

Band Takes Prize

GOURIN — The Northern Blue Star Ramblers, Gourin's own orchestra, entered the Amature Week Contests in Plamondon and won first prize. The orchestra played an engagement in Atmore on Friday.

PROUD MOMENT came for Mrs. Emily Stanton, pioneer farmer for 40 years in the Westlock district, who spoke on the province-wide broadcast as a typical representative of the 31 senior citizens homes now in operation in Alberta. Hon. R. D. Jorgenson, Minister of Public Welfare, and MLA for the constituency, stands beside Mrs. Stanton who said she was "thankful for this beautiful home. We are all grateful." She recalled the many times as a pioneer she had to get behind the plow, or cross thin ice on boards, "and then quickly wound up her little talk with the explanation that her daughter had advised her to "stand up so they can see you, speak up so they can hear you, and sit down so they like you." – Sun Staff Photo.

Deep Appreciation Of Freedoms Is Urged By Members Of Clergy

The annual Memorial Day services and celebrations were held at Lac la Biche on Nov. 11. Weather was reasonably favorable. The turnout of veterans was remarkably good, with members coming from Wandering River, Plamondon and Briereville.

The veterans, RCMP, Sea Cadets and fire brigade assembled at the Memorial Hall just prior to 11 o'clock and moved off under the command of parade marshal Sgt. J. A. Williams.

Wreaths were laid at the cenotaph by Peter Dribnenki for the Navy, Narcisse Mouille for the Army, T. E. McCullough for the Air Force and His Worship Mayor Maccagno for the town of Lac la Biche.

After the sounding of the last post and the raising of the flag, the parade moved on to religious services at St. Catherine's and St. Andrew's churches.

Veterans and guests assembled in the Legion cottage at 12:30 for a bountiful turkey dinner served by the Ladies' Auxiliary. President Booker, as master of ceremonies, called on a number of members to participate in the program. S. J. Clarke asked the blessing on the meal. The toast to the Queen was proposed by Cpl. J. H. Clark of the RCMP. The only charter member present, R. W. La Croix, was recognized. Also present was J. Wolstenholme, who served in the RCAF during World War 2, and was given recognition as the most decorated man in that branch of the service, having taken part in every campaign in the Imperial Army since the Boer War. He has been a member of this branch for many years.

A welcome to the town was tendered visitors by Mayor Maccagno, who is an honorary member of the club. He presented every serviceman with his usual gift of guest passes to the Aurora Theatre.

Members of the clergy present were Rev. Swinton, Rev. Munro, Rev. Moe and Rev. Homenko. In their messages to the gathering the ministers urged a deep appreciation of the Christian freedoms for which many of our comrades had sacrificed their lives.

Sgt. J. A. Williams touched the real spirit of the armistice gathering with a reminiscence of his association with one comrade in action who did not return.

After the banquet D. Bouvier of the National Film Board, assisted by Rod Cherkas, presented a deeply moving film entitled "Lest We Forget," depicting the events and action of the First Great War.

The remainder of the day was spent in pleasant association with comrades at the club, renewing acquaintances and recounting experiences. The festivities were concluded with an Armistice dance at the Memorial Hall at which all servicemen and their wives were guests of the town.

Rev. W. Friesen Guest Speaker

LAC LA BICHE — Rev. William Friesen, returned missionary from Japan, was guest speaker in the Lac la Biche and Hylo Evangelical Free Churches November 6. Rev. Friesen was pastor under the Canadian Sunday School Mission in this area two years prior to his term in Japan where he served under the Japan Evangelical Mission. He showed slides of the work in the Orient and also had numerous curios on display. He stated that since the Japanese language is one of the most difficult in the world to master, much of a missionary's first term on the field is spent in language study.

Rev. Friesen was accompanied by his wife, the former Lois Maxwell, daughter of L. E. Maxwell, principal of Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, and their two little daughters Hannah, 4, and Lily, 2. The family expects to return to Japan early in the new year where they will again be in the radio ministry of the mission.

More than 85 per cent of all fatal accidents last year were blamed on human error!

JOHN CHAPLIN

HIS JOB IS BOOSTING U.K.

John Chaplin, United Kingdom Information Officer for the province, has the task of keeping Britain alive in the minds of Albertans. He replaces James Thompson, who died last December, in Edmonton.

Visiting schools to tell the children what Britain and other parts of the Commonwealth are doing will be high on the list of Mr. Chaplin's activities. Promoting Britain through news media is also essential.

"We have many pamphlets on the Queen, the British people, the history of monarchs, and we distribute 2,000 copies of each issue every six weeks," said Mr. Chaplin. "I feel this is good business as unlike older folk, the younger people have fewer British ties."

Mr. Chaplin, who has completed a full time career in the Royal Air Force as Air Commodore, was a former air advisor to Malcolm MacDonald, and served the U.K. High Commissioner in India.

Bayview

Paul Mallas has rejoined his family in Bayview. Mr. Mallas has been working in British Columbia.

Miss H. Hrynck, a University of Alberta student has returned to Edmonton following a visit with her family.

Grey Cup Fever Hits Western Fans

WINNIPEG — Grey Cup fever, n epidemic proportions, is breaking out all over the west. According to F. N. McKenzie, passenger traffic manager for Canadian National Railways, it seems to be more widespread than ever this year. He reports that requests for train reservations to Vancouver are pouring in to the CNR's passenger sales offices in all three prairie provinces.

Mr. McKenzie said that over the past few years, the football fan has discovered that half the fun of seeing Canada's greatest sports spectacle is to board a train with several hundred other fans to share their enthusiasm en route.

"The trend is now fully established," he said, "and this year we expect to use more equipment than ever before to handle this traffic." He cautioned that the special, low Grey Cup fares coupled with the big demand for space made early reservations imperative to avoid disappointment.

One of the CNR's "football" specials leaving Winnipeg the night of November 23 will have Stu Davis and all the gang from CBC's Red River Jamboree on board. This entertainment group also will appear on the Winnipeg floats in the big Grey Cup parade.

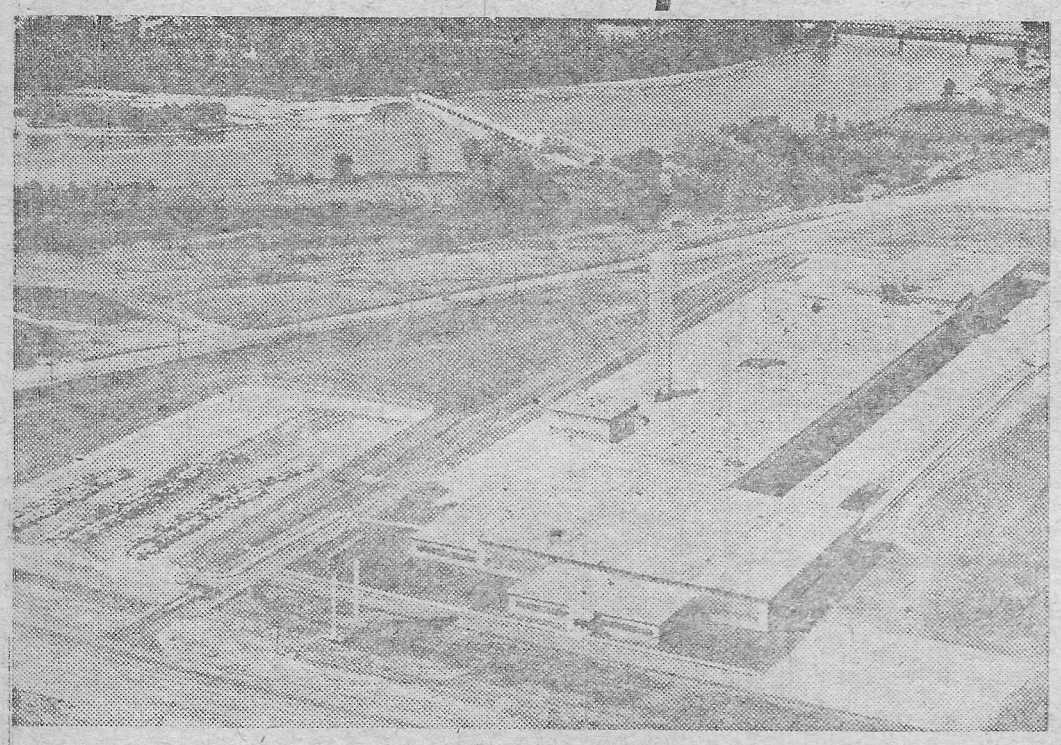
Firestone Opens New Tire Plant



FIRESTONE OF CANADA'S multi-million dollar Calgary tire manufacturing plant was officially opened by Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., Chairman of the Board from Akron, Ohio. Stretching nearly a quarter of a mile long, the new plant is the most modern and best equipped facility of its kind in North America. A full line of passenger, truck, bus, tractor and implement tires will be produced for the markets of western Canada.

Heralds New Era Of Diversified Industrial Development In Alta.

CALGARY — The opening of Firestone of Canada's new Calgary, Alberta, tire manufacturing plant last month heralded a new era of diversified industrial development in western Canada

This prediction was made by T. M. Mayberry, president, Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of Canada Ltd., at the official opening of the multi-million dollar tire plant. Mr. Mayberry based his forecast on studies made by the Canadian company leading up to the decision to expand its manufacturing into the western provinces.

Harvey S. Firestone Jr., chairman of the board, from Akron, Ohio, attended the opening accompanied by his brothers, Raymond C. Firestone, president of the world-wide firm; Leonard K. Firestone, president, Firestone Tire & Rubber Company of California; Roger S. Firestone, president, Firestone Plastics Company, Pottstown, Pa. It is the first time the four Firestone brothers have been together outside the United States.

Mr. Firestone Jr., assisted by the Hon. Douglas S. Harkness, M P., recently appointed Minister of Defence; Hon. A. R. Patrick, Minister of Industry and Development for Alberta; and Deputy Mayor Bruce Watson snipped a ribbon in front of the office to declare the plant officially open.

The plant is the most modern tire manufacturing facility in North America and houses the very latest equipment of its type in the industry. Production plans call for a full line of passenger, truck, bus, tractor and implement tires to be manufactured.

Construction began in July with two Calgary firms, Mannix Company Ltd. and Burns and Dutton Concrete and Construction Company, named as the prime contractors.

On July 16, 1959, a giant diesel powered scraper scooped out the first load of earth, signalling the official start of construction. Some 475,000 cubic yards of earth were redistributed along the slopes of the site to provide a level foundation.

Construction continued throughout the winter months and on Wednesday, February 17, 1960, the tire to be assembled and cured in Alberta was manufactured in pilot plant production. The tire was produced to test the installation of the first tire building and curing machines of the latest type and design in North America. That same afternoon President T. M. Mayberry presented the 7.50-14 Firestone Deluxe Champion tubeless tire to Mayor Hays at City Hall.

Thorhild Village To Apply For $8,000 For Winter Works

The village of Thorhild will apply to the department of municipal affairs for a winter works program authorization in the sum of $8,000 for labor. The provincial government is to pay 25 per cent and the federal government 50 per cent, funds to cover work on preparation of sidewalk construction, addition to hall, gravel stockpiling and engineering and brushing.

This was decided at the October 31 meeting of village council when it was agreed to apply to the Department of Public Health for consideration to have a county municipal hospital located in the village of Thorhild.

At this first meeting of the new council of the village the secretary-treasurer P. G. Woloschuk called the meeting to order and gave a report on the nomination and election results. Present were Councillors Dave Yachimec and Steve Stroich and newly elected councillor J. W. Rowland.

The secretary-treasurer reported that on the Nomination Date, Sept. 28, Mr. J. W. Rowland was elected as councillor by acclamation. Also, that Steve Stroich was elected as representative of the Village on the School Committee of the County of Thorhild No. 7, by acclamation.

R. Baker acted as Returning Officer. There were no elections.

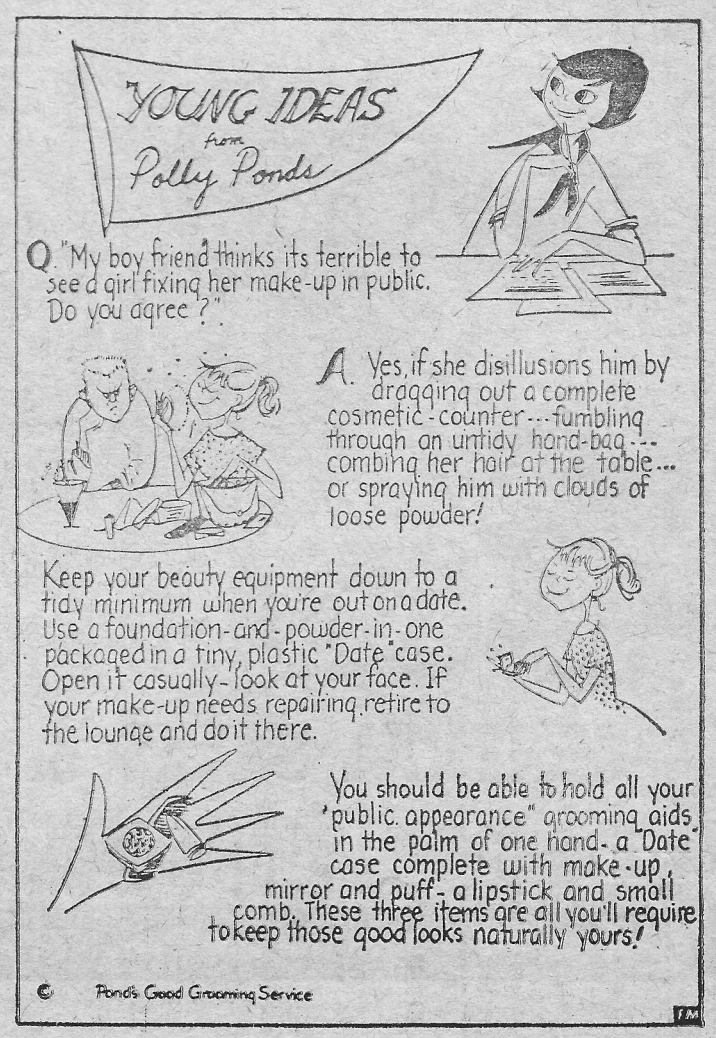
Councillor J. W. Rowland was then duly sworn into office before P. G. Woloschuk, Commissioner of Oaths. The Secretary then called for nominations for a Mayor.

Councillor Steve Stroich nominated Councillor Dave Yachimec for Mayor.

Mayor Dave Yachimec then took over as Chairman and proceeded to conduct the meeting.

Moved that Councillor Steve Streich act as Deputy Mayor. Carried.

Moved that the minutes of the last meeting held on October 3, be adopted as read. Carried.



YOUNG IDEAS from Polly Ponds
Q. "My boy friend thinks its terrible to see a girl fixing her make-up in public. Do you agree?".
A. Yes, if she disillusions him by dragging out a complete cosmetic-counter---fumbling through an untidy hand-bag---combing her hair at the table... or spraying him with clouds of loose powder!
Keep your beauty equipment down to a tidy minimum when you're out on a date. Use a foundation-and-powder-in-one packaged in a tiny, plastic "Date" case. Open it casually-look at your face. If your make-up needs repairing, retire to the lounge and do it there.
You should be able to hold all your "public appearance" grooming aids in the palm of one hand-a "Date" case complete with make-up, mirror and puff-a lipstick and small comb. These three items are all you'll require to keep those good looks naturally yours!

Over My Gatepost

By Anthony J. Wright

Man on the move in Ottawa is Mr. George Hees. He began political life with four advantages — he is rich, handsome, well-built and fast with a word. But during the dusty days of Opposition the idea got around that George was a lightweight, that he was "a good guy." They implied he'd never amount to much. I believe they may be proved wrong.

George Hees may not have the intellectual horsepower of Davie Fulton, justice minister and another possible successor to Diefenbaker but he has an awful lot of horse sense. Almost as important, he is blessed with one of the most astute advisers in the political game, Mel Jack, former Drew aide and Indian Affairs official as well as a successful businessman (Great Lakes Paper Co.).

Anthony Wright

Since June, 1957, Mr. Hees has gauntly quipped his way through more than three years of success as transport minister. He showed a mastery in parliament that was due in great measure to careful homework done by Jack and other advisers. And across the country, George Hees could not help being popular, especially in the Maritimes and other parts where transport is important. He was careful too to brush up his French.

The transport minister is a man who paves the way for jobs, helps communities He is a giving minister rather than a taking one . . . e.g., the minister of national revenue. (As a man aside, I may note here that Revenue Minister George Nowlan wanted, in the worst way, to move over to transport during the recent shuffle of jobs, but Dief the Chief kept him where he has been since the Tories came to power).

It was known to a few friends of Mr. Hees that in the reshuffle he would cross over from transport to trade and commerce. This, he told a friend, suited him well for he understood businessmen. Our trade certainly needed as much drive as we could put into it But, said George, "I'll have to find some way of getting rid of wheat and uranium!"

To anyone watching the political scene here this is a wish that is easy to understand. Because the Wheat Board sells wheat it has been looked after by the minister of trade. Therefore that poor chap whoever he is, has to field tiresome and loaded questions from prairie politicians about our wheat sales sales of other grain and so forth And never, in my experience of Ottawa, have Opposition politicians from farm areas been slow to needle the trade minister about wheat.

Trade Minister Churchill, and before him C. D. Howe, spent much of their time, breath and temper on grain.

Similarly because uranium was one of Howe's many cares it passed with the portfolio to Trade Minister Gordon Churchill. He had more trouble than a a barrelful of monkeys over Elliott Lake and American refusl to buy uranium from us when they had it coming out of their ears.

Hees knows that he could lose popularity in Parliament and across the land if he were stuck with wheat and uranium. Therefore he made a deal with Dief the Chief. Result: Agriculture Minister Alvin Hamilton gets the Wheat Board, and why not? and, o fall people, the Minister of Veterans Affairs, now Gordon Churchill, gets uranium. Why uranium is not given to the Minister of Mines and Technical Surveys is beyond me and others.

All this left George Hees free to move in fast to grab the trade ball He's been in office now a shade over five weeks. On his second day he phoned his deputy, James A. Roberts, in Brussels, Belgium, asking him to come over forthwith to Canada for two days' special talks Roberts hustled over. Before he had left the two men, with their main lieutenants, had pulled off one of the smartest political and economic coups of the Diefenbaker administration.

They had summoned a mammoth trade conference to open November 30 in Ottawa and, on December 5, to bring to this little burg all Canadian businessmen with export hopes to talk turkey with any or all of Canada's 63 trade commissioners brought home especially for down-to-earth talks. It is a typically Hees move, full of flair and dash; it won't harm his future at all.

Alberta FGA Said "Most" Progressive

The Northeastern Division of the Alberta F G A held its tenth annual convention at Bruderheim. Mr. Sid Leicester of Viking presided, and in the unavoidable absence of the Secretary, Mr. Bruce Stewart of Calgary record the business of the meeting.

Mr. Ben Rosnau, of Bruderheim, vice-president of the provincial body, and district representative for the Northeastern District, introduced the chairman and honored guests to the delegates. Honored guests included Hon. Frank Fane, MP, Vegreville, Hon. Nick Melnyk, MLA, Andrew, Gordon Cummings and Bruce Stewart of Calgary, president and secretary-manager respectively of Alberta Fish and Game Association.

In a short address to the delegates, Mr. Cummings expressed his belief that the Alberta FGA was the most progressive in Canada and stated that the Northeastern Division is the only one in the province that meets with local clubs regularly to discuss problems, and suggested organizing the Alberta association into smaller groups so the same policy could be carried out effectively throughout the province.

Mr. Cummings especially commended the Camrose FGA for raising their membership from 140 last year to its present total of 450 active members. Vilna receive praise for their splendid work in converting a stretch of rough bush land into a splendid park and picnic ground with voluntary labor and funds raised locally by the club.

Fort Saskatchewan was named as the most progressive club, largely on account of the progress it has made in the field of hunter-farmer relationship. Bruderheim was also commended for its work in the field of youth training, and also for being the latest club to form a junior branch.

After the business session, which lasted throughout the afternoon, a discussion panel was formed to discuss the various aspects and aims of the Fish and Game Association Junior Branches. Members of the panel were Ben Rosnau (Bruderheim), Archie Miller (Lloydminster), and Slim Layley (Edmonton). Bruce Stewart acted as moderator, and one of the junior members put the questions to the panels. As all members of the panel had had experience in youth training, an interesting and somewhat lengthy discussion ensued which covered most aspects of that subject.

At the end of the discussion, the boys expressed their concern over the difficulty they were experiencing in getting their activities publicized in the press, however, Mr. Layley, speaking on behalf of the Sun Publishing Co. Ltd., assured them that they would receive the same coverage that is being given the senior clubs, and a boy was duly appointed to send in regular reports of the club's activities for publication.

Each of the three boys who were there to represent the junior branches took full part in the business. they all spoke exceptionally well, and carried out their business with an assurance and lack of reserve that would have been a credit to much older and more experienced men.

Another salient point of the convention was the report by Mr. Fred Young of Fort Saskatchewan. Mr. Young reported that the Fort club has supplied its farmer members with posters with which to post their land.

Mr. Young said that so far the experiment has been 100 per cent successful.

The posters state that the farmer is a member of the Fish and Game Association and that hunters are welcome to hunt on his land with his permission. This report met with thunderous applause from the delegates, many of whom were farmers.

The farmers felt that the use of these posters gave them reasonable assurance that only men they knew to be responsible would be hunting on their land, and the hunters felt that it was a very effective kick-back at the many people, including some politicians and newspapers, who appeared to be trying to drive a wedge between the farmers and hunters by blaming the hunters for the misdemeanors of gun-toting hoodlums.

A very sumptuous turkey supper was served by the Bruderheim ladies, and the convention wound up with a pleasant social evening during which some beautiful wild-life films were shown by member of the junior club, and by Mr. Bruce Stewart.

Farmers' Union Meet At J. Broton's

It's Time to Round Up Those STRAYS...

LET'S MAKE A SERVICE DATE NOW... WHILE WE BOTH HAVE TIME!

"Straying horsepower" is picking the pockets of farmers everywhere. And probably yours, too. Authoritative tests at the University of Nebraska proved every tractor loses power during a year's time; some tractors lose as much as 20 per cent. These losses cost you money!

Our skilled mechanics can round up that straying horsepower in a hurry and put your tractor back in top condition for economical, work-saving performance next season. Being trained in John Deere servicing methods, our mechanics know what to do and how to do it . . . quickly, efficiently. This means quality service at the lowest possible cost.

Right now . . . while we're not rushed . . . is an excellent time to have your tractor tuned up . . . or reconditioned, if necessary. Stop by the next time you're in town and let's talk over your service needs!

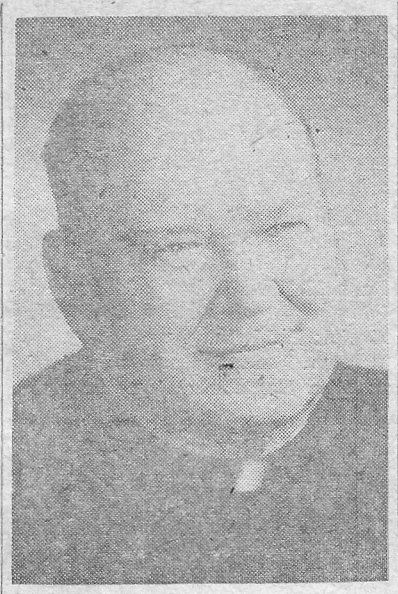
St. Maria Goretti Church Blessed By Archbishop In Dedication Ceremony

Sunday, Nov. 6 was an outstanding day in the history of the Calmar-Devon parish. Not only was it the day on which the new church at Devon was solemnly blessed and officially opened, but by an act of kind providence the weather was summer-like, the temperature being in the 50's, which is certainly an exception in western Canada for this time of the year when the thermometer is usually around zero and we witnessed a change and a sudden drop accompanied by very cold winds and snow the following day. Therefore we were all very thankful for the nice weather which prevailed.

Most Rev. Anthony Jordan, OMI, DD, Coadjuter Archbishop of Edmonton blessed the new church, dedicated in honor of St. Maria Goretti, one of the modern saints of the Church, which dedication is most fitting as Devon is the most modern town in Alberta which only came into being ten years ago because of the oil development in the district. The ceremonies commenced at 3 p.m. by the blessing of the exterior of the church. As the Archbishop performed this sacred function he was accompanied by the procession of clergy and altar boys. After the special prayers were recited at the door of the church the procession then entered the building, followed by the parishioners and then interior of the building was blessed and dedicated to the service of Almighty God, particularly for the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. After these ceremonies were terminated the sermon for the occasion was delivered by Archbishop Jordan.



REV. J. E. McGRANE

In his sermon, Archbishop Jordan congratulated Fr. McGrane, the parish priest, and the congregation on the wonderful work they had done and for the vast amount of voluntary labor that had been willingly given in the building of the new church which is a very fine edifice 78x36 feet. In his message to the congregation, Archbishop Jordan said . . . "This is a house of God and it is a fitting tribute to you and your devotion, sacrifices and hard work. It is one of the highest acts of men and women that they should worship God. Your willingness to be God's servants, shows that you have taken a great step towards holiness.

"You have accomplished so much in such a short life and because you gave freely of your labors, your devotion and sacrifices, I am certain that this fine church has become an important part of you". The Archbishop's sermon was then followed by the first Mass to be said in the church, celebrated by Rev. J. E. McGrane, P.P. The choir, which beautifully rendered the sacred music was under the direction of Mrs. A. Roderique, the organist being Mrs. P. Duitman.

At the conclusion of the Mass Fr. McGrane then addressed the congregation and thanked all who had in any way contributed to the success of this fine project and the Archbishop presented a framed Papal Benediction to Mr. J. D. Henderson who was the chairman of the building committee who also directed the fund raising campaign to obtain the necessary money needed to build the church. As a result of these efforts there is only a debt of $5,000 owing to the local bank. Also Fr. McGrane made note of his own personal happiness on this great day. He mentioned the fact that besides an official visit of the Archbishop it was also a personal one as they had known each other for over thirty years. Also he mentioned the presence of Fr. J. Holland and Fr. S. Stewart as they were class-mates of his in St. Josephs Seminary, Edmonton and were ordained together on April 23, 1933. Tribute was also paid to Rt. Rev. Msgr. H. Griffin, present rector of the seminary who came there as a professor while Fr. McGrane was student. Present also for the ceremonies was Mr. T P. McGrane and family of Elrose, Sask., where Mr. McGrane, brother of Fr. McGrane is editor and publisher of the Elrose Review. Present also was a contingent of Fr. McGrane's former parishioners from Lac la Biche where he had been parish priest for almost 20 years.

DINNER IN THE BRAUN HALL

After the ceremonies in the church the local council of the Catholic Women's League served dinner to over 250 guests. This event was convened by Mrs. Cathy O'Brien and was really a very gala affair and the hall was tastefully decorated. At this time the Mayor of Devon Mr. G. Bray extended a civic welcome to Archbishop Jordan and the other visitors present. Fr. McGrane acted as chairman and introduced other speakers and guests. Many of the parishioners of Calmar and district were also present. The large group from Lac la Biche were presented and Mr. M. Maccagno, MLA, Mayor of Lac la Biche spoke on their behalf. The local member in the Alberta Legislature, Mr. E. Ansley, MLA also addresser the gathering. Mr. and Mrs. Linus Meyer, Clover Bar, were also called upon. In 1933, when they resided at Irma, Alta., they were members of Fr. McGrane's first congregation when he was appointed there as a newly ordained priest.

This truly was wonderful but the work is not all finished. The front of the church is very bare as the stained glass windows and other decorations are not yet in place. Much has to be done on the interior of the church. There is no tower as yet, but in keeping with the district there is erected a 35-foot cross, made out of well-casing. We all wish to take this opportunity to thank all who helped to bring this project to such a successful conclusion, especially to Archbishop Jordan and the chancellor of the ceremonies. The clergy also who were present Mr. Jos. Swidley of Devon, the contractor, the Town of Devon for their co-operation, and our thanks to Most Rev. J. H. MacDonald, D.D., Archbishop of Edmonton for his paternal encouragement and interest in this endeavor. If by any chance we have forgotten anyone, it is not intentional and so we take this opportunity to thank them even if annonymous. In conclusion although if this has seemed to be a human effort it was not accomplished without prayer, and everything has been done "Ad Majorem Dei Gloriam," for the Greater Glory of God."

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Shwetz and Mrs. Anne Kolach visited Mr. and Mrs. F. Ewashkow and family of Thorhild recently.

Attending the car bingo in Edmonton were George Wasalenchuk, Fred and John Shyian, Otto Pfau, Stephine Hewko, Anne Kolach, Johnny Kowalyk, Mr. and Mrs. Archy Shwetz.

FLOWERS FOR EVERY OCCASION

THE Homemaker

By BERTHA M. McCUTCHEON

The Consumer Section of the Canada Department of Agriculture in its pamphlet on cereals tells us about breakfast cereals.

Breakfast Cereals: At breakfast, cereals may be served in the form of porridges or ready-to-eat flakes, shreds, kernels, puffs and pillows.

B. McCutcheon

Whole Grain Cereals: Contain the entire kernel of grain. They are excellent and economical sources of starch and vegetable protein. Whole grain and enriched cereals contain significant amounts of three B vitamins: thiamine, riboflavin & niacin. They contribute minerals especially iron and phosphorus. All these food elements are necessary daily for growth, health and resistance to disease.

Refined Cereals: Processed by intensive milling. Contain mostly the starchy part of the grain. Refined cereals are sometimes enriched with vitamins and minerals or by the addition of wheat germ.

Whole grain and refined cereals are found in these forms:

Instant cereals, processed to need only heating after mixing with hot liquid such as water or milk. Cost slightly more than quick cooking cereals but save time.

Regular cereals, least processed of all cereals, therefore require long cooking. Very few found in this form.

Baby cereals, fine textured and pre-cooked with added vitamins and minerals. Specially suited for infants and convalescents.

Ready-to-eat cereals, are ready to serve direct from package. Found in varied food value, texture, shap and flavor. Cost more per serving than "regular" cereals.

Breakfast cereals made from wheat and oats: The following are popular breakfast cereals made from wheat and oats. Most are sold nationally under various trade names. The uncooked cereals may be in quick-cooking, instant or regular form. Both uncooked and ready-to-eat cereals may have added food value in the form of vitamins and minerals or wheat germ. To learn the food value, to identify the grain or composition of the cereal food and to discover other pertinent facts, read the label carefully before buying.

Uncooked Cereals (Wheat and Oats): Cracked Wheat. Dark colored whole grain cereal. Coarsely ground into angular pieces during milling. Contains considerable fibrous material, therefore require longer cooking than most regular type cereals.

Farina. White colored farina is a refined granular cereal. Sometimes enriched. Made from wheat middlings, that is, particles of endosperm free from bran and germ. Dark colored farina contains some bran and germ and is classed as a whole grain cereal.

Natural Bran (and processed bran): Made entirely from bran layers of wheat, therefore very high in fiber. Usually taken in small amounts or added to other breakfast cereals or flour products for laxative effect.

Oatmeal: A granular whole grain cereal made from finely ground oats.

Rolled Oats: Whole grain cereal made from cleaned, roasted, dehulled grains which are rolled into flakes and sold as "regular" oats. When grains are cut into pieces and rolled very thin, they may be cooked in a very short time.

Rolled or Flaked Wheat: Whole grain cereal. Made by a process similar to that of "regular" rolled oats.

Wheat Meal: Granular whole grain product which may be mixed with another cereal such as rye or oats. Often supplemented with wheat germ.

Explorer Group Enjoys Hallowe'en

MANNVILLE — Pumpkins, black cats and skeletons decorated the candle-lit social room in McQueen Memorial United Church as 21 Explorer members met on Monday, October 31 for their Hallowe'en party.

Corinne Ewing efficiently conducted the games period assisted by Janice Bang. Lunch committee consisted of Heather Morrison, Linda Holden and Corinne Cavanaugh. The party concluded with singing and the old-time favorite sport of ducking for apples.

Regular expeditions of the group continue each Monday at 3:45 p.m. with preparations for the Initiation Ceremony. Official Explorer blouses have been ordered by over half the members and it is hoped all girls will be in uniform in the near future.

Mannville Laymen Conduct Service

MANNVILLE — "Preachers for a day" might well have been said regarding Gerrit te Kempe and Angus Smith, both of Mannville, recently. On Sunday, October 30, Rev. Frank Andrews was the anniversary speaker at both Dewberry and Islay United Churches and Mr. te Kampe and Mr. Smith took charge of the three services at Mannville, Innisfree and Minburn.

They were two of the more than 250 United Church men from the four Prairie provinces who, on Thanksgiving weekend, met at Banff to discuss the layman's part in religion and the church. They brought back a stirring account of the proceedings of the trip and the "close" companionship of the Volkswagen, and the three men (Clare Cavanaugh being the third member from the Mannville-Minburn charge) rehashed the whole convention on the way home, to the mutual benefit of all.

Mr. te Kampe's remarks during the sermon period were both personal and convincing and left no doubt in the minds of the hearers that if this world is ever to become a better place in which to live and raise our children, the first move has to be with the individual himself. On this note, the very enlightening service came to an end and it is the feeling of the congregations that other talks by laymen in the future will be appreciated.

Honor Conferred On Two Teachers

MANNVILLE — Not beefs but bouquets are extended to two Mannville teachers, who had their B.Ed. degrees conferred upon them in Calgary at the fall convocation held in Calgary on Saturday, Oct. 29. The two teachers receiving their degrees were Mrs. F. Polischuk, Junior High, and Kevin Majeau, Senior High. The staff and students of Mannville School are justly proud of both teachers.

Canada's population is well on its way to the 18 million mark.

Elizabeth Nedahin, Rycroft, piano grade 8 rendered "Fantasia in D Minor" Mozart and "The Little Nigar" Debussy.

The guest artist for the evening was Gary Hickmott from Edmonton, winner of the Heintzman and Co. Piano Scholarship of $100. This young artist, about 13 years old, piano grade 10 thrilled the audience with his wonderful interpretation of the "Spinning Song" Leitestrum No. 3, "Soirie de Vienne" and encores.

Miss Louise Hebert and Miss Lorraine Chouinard each received $10 award which was donated by the Falher Consolidated School District.

The two young ladies were guests of the Rev. Sisters of Holy Cross at the St. Joseph Academy. They returned home delighted with their two day visit at Grande Prairie and greatly encouraged in their piano studies.

TIPS FOR PARENTS

By HELEN R. HEWSON—Parent Education Associates

THE editor of a family magazine asked "what did the Canadian Conference on Children have to say about spanking?"

It wasn't mentioned, she was told.

The questioner was incredulous. "But didn't they discuss discipline?"

Many parents ask, "How shall I discipline my child —what discipline should I use?" . . . when they mean punishment.

Discipline means training, education, a way of life. When well-trained teachers, social workers, community leaders, etc., discuss discipline they are talking about the positive, constructive influences in home, school and community that affect a child's development and learning.

They refer to the emotional climate in home and school, the tasks and opportunities for wholesome play and creative interests and the child's gradual understanding of the rules of good behavior.

Good discipline is based on a knowledge of what a child is capable of understanding and being responsible for.

It is helped by our skill in gaining the child's trust and co-operation in our training plan, and it is helped or hindered by our own behavior.

One aspect of discipline that received a great deal of thoughtful attention at the conference was adult behavior and the breakdown of social and ethical standards, at the adult level.

We preach one thing to our children—to be honest, unselfish, polite and friendly—and we practise expediency, self-indulgence, discrimination.

Little children are alert, f r i e n d l y, compassionate and affectionate. We need to take a good hard look at our way of life, a discipline that would transform these delightful creatures into our own image.

Search For Talent Program To Be Sponsored By Ladies' Auxiliary

Search for Talent, dressed in a "New Look," will visit Lac la Biche on Saturday, December 3, Jim Hamar, local contact for the Associated Canadian Travellers, announced recently.

The show is coming to Lac la Biche under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion, Lac la Biche Branch, who are co-ordinating their efforts with the Travellers in making the show a success in this first appearance under a new and revised format.

Mr. Hamar stated that one of the major changes in the New Look Search for Talent is the elimination of popularity voting and replacing this with straight adjudication.

Other special features will make the evening's performance more attractive and will give the local citizenry an opportunity for more participation in this worthy project in various ways.

Spotlight Parade has taken on a more hilarious look and fans can look forward to 60 minutes of rousing entertainment as a supplement to the talent show. It is under the direction of Jack Benbow, stage director of CFRN-TV, and features such well known radio and TV personalities as Molly Kvittem, Johnny Forest, Jack Wallace, Maureen Burley, Robena Pike, Al Jones and Walter Maidens.

Several business firms have come forth with awards that will add to the evening's excitement and at the same time will mean more proceeds to the Crippled Children's Fund.

Northwestern Utilities Ltd. and Weber Bros. Agencies Ltd. have combined to prove the cash prizes to the three winners at each show including the semi-finals and finals. These awards will be presented as soon as the judge declares the winners.

Christensen Shirt Company are providing a shirt as a door prize for each show, based on a program number.

Molson's Edmonton Brewery Ltd. will present cheques at each show to the local organization sponsoring the show and to the Crippled Children's Fund.

For the fourteenth consecutive year Search for Talent is sponsored jointly by the Associated Canadian Travellers and Radio Station CFRN with proceeds going to the Northern Alberta Crippled Children's Fund.

Entries for the talent contest are being accepted by Mr. Hamar at Michael Hamar's Supermarket and early entry is urged because the number of contestants will be limited to twenty.

Search for Talent officials stated that the ten best performances will be heard on CFRN Radio the following Saturday commencing at eight o'clock and that the finals of Search for Talent will be on television next April. Show will be held at the Lac la Biche Memorial Hall and contestants are urged to be there at 4 o'clock for auditioning.
